								The building
								he works in has a very
								official atmosphere,
								but again, not legal.
								As concerns his personality, he makes no
								big enemies. He impresses people with his grasp of his field
								but he isn't a threat to anyone. He is very dedicated, unemotional (apparently) and even-keeled. He does his SG1	job without making waves.
